The following message was hand-written on the back of a copy of a cyclostyled greeting which FANG Shih-ts'un (方適存), superintendent of the Hong Kong refugee camp at Kennie's Hill, had distributed to the inmates of the camp on the occasion of the Mid-Autumn Festival, 26 September 1950.*

"Warning to the inmates of the refugee camp:
You stateless and pitiful creatures!
Yours is not the broad and bright path, for you are slaves of the imperialists and tools of the American brigands.
You are enemies of your own people and traitors to your own country!
Think again about the crimes you have committed.
Turn your thoughts to your home country, repent and serve your own people!
Do not be duped by illusory dreams.
Our government will be generous to you all.
All you want to do is to go to Taiwan, and for this you exert every effort.
Yet what happens? How many of you have actually got to Taiwan?
Let me tell you - the People's Liberation Army will attack and liberate Formosa.
Hong Kong is no paradise, for Hong Kong is also one of our objectives.
Where, then, will you go? The British imperialists will not always be able to protect you.
If you delay, it may be too late.
Wake up! Stir yourselves, join the People's Government.

Signed: WANG Chiu (王九)
Agent designated to Kennie's Hill
Hong Kong and Macao Intelligence Section of the South China Political Bureau."
